

DECISION

Question

What would we decide if we were
not afraid of
backlash?

Imagine we had full public support, or no one could push back for a year. Which choice would feel bold and right and why are we not taking it now? Are there ways around?