

DECISION

Question

What are the consequences of not deciding?

Indecision is also a choice that could cost us opportunities, momentum, or credibility. How can we break the cycle of endless discussion? And what do we need to actually decide?