

VISION

Question

How would energy generation, sharing, and use work in our ideal community?

How could the technical and social aspects function to serve everyone? What role does innovative technology play? How do members participate in managing and using energy?