

VISION

Question

Which of our core values must never be compromised?

How can we reinforce and celebrate these core values regularly as a community? Are there emerging values we want to adopt or look into more deeply moving forward?