

UNION

Question

How do we make space for rest, play, or celebration?

Do we intentionally carve out time for relaxation and fun? How important is this to us, and can we think of ways to integrate it more naturally into our routine?